Special Features { London Finish Superior Balance
 Good Shooting
 Siemens Superior Quality Steel
 or English Damascus Barrels

No. 1 Pattern and Quality ... Price 15 Guineas
 No. 2 .. .. . " 12 "

The finishing of these Guns is by hand labour, consequently all the advantages of form, balance, and general hardiness are embodied in them, whereas Machine-made Guns are generally heavy, clumsy, and ill-balanced weapons. The Guns are carefully tested and shot, and are guaranteed to give a regular pattern and good penetration.

No. 3 Pattern and Quality, plain Finish ... Price 10 Guineas.
 Keeper Guns, B Quality, £6 10s. | Keeper Guns, A Quality, 4 & 5 Guineas

These Guns are specially made for the use of Keepers and others requiring a sound, strong, and handy Gun at a moderate price. The action is the well-known lever over-guard principle which is simple as well as one of the strongest extant. Although all ornamentation is dispensed with, the form and style is far beyond that which is usual in Guns of this description. The right barrels are cylinder bored, and the left full or medium choked. The latter of these two is recommended for general shooting.

Save Your Poultry!

ENORMOUS SUCCESS.

A REAL CURE FOR GAPES.

KALYDÉ

(REGISTERED)

Is prepared from the Recipe of one of the most experienced Gamekeepers in England, and has been used by him for the past twenty years, and never known to fail to cure the Gapes in Pheasants and Chickens.

EVIDENCE.

Messrs. Chamberlin & Smith will be good enough to forward a tin of Kalyde. My previous experience of it leads me to believe that no case of Gapes is hopeless while a spark of life remains in the chick. A member of the Medical Profession myself, I have tried many experiments with indifferent success; but I think no one who tried Kalyde once will ever resort to any other remedy. You can make any use you please of this letter.

PRESERVED WOOD FENCING, &c.,

For Estates, Railways, Collieries, &c.

Creosoted Fencing is neat in appearance and can be fixed by any handy labourer. It lasts three times as long as Unpreserved Wood, including Larch and needs no painting or tarring. Unlike Wire or Iron Fencing, it is not dangerous to Stock, being safe during thunderstorms. Cattle and Horses have frequently been killed by being near to Iron Fences. Death has also often been caused by animals being broken pieces of wire.

Fine Dairy Salt,

Is prepared by a patented process, and is in NATURAL
CRYSTALS only, and is not crushed or ground

CRUSHING SALT DESTROYS ITS PURE SWEET FLAVOUR

SEVEN REASONS FOR USING HIGGIN'S DAIRY SALT:—

- 1.—ECONOMY. A much smaller quantity being sufficient.
- 2.—SOFTNESS, FREENESS, and UNIFORMITY OF GRAIN, causing even distribution throughout the curd, enabling it to reach every Butter Globule without breaking it; allowing every crystal to be entirely dissolved, and its properties imparted to every particle of the Cheese or Butter.
- 3.—PURITY, SWEETNESS & FLAVOUR owing to its absolute purity.
- 4.—NO WASTE, every grain being fit for use.
- 5.—PERFECT DRYNESS; always ready for use, without having to be re-crushed.
- 6.—NO IMPURITIES to impart an acid, bitter, or alkaline flavour, or to make the Butter salvy.
- 7.—PROFIT TO THE DAIRYMAN, because he obtains a higher price for his Butter.

THE WILLIAM E. GEDDES' "UTILITY" Automatic Breaking Tackle.

For Breaking and Biting Young Horses or Subduing Vicious Bad-mannered Horses.

The illustration is from a photo. of Colonel Cody's (Buffalo Bill) horse, which is neither a youngster nor vicious. This explains why all the straps are so loose. Mr. Geddes himself will go any reasonable distance and put this tackle on horses, showing its superiority over all others.

There is nothing so humane and so effectual as this tackle. It makes a good mouth, good manners, and a good disposition. If the youngster is kindly and gently treated, nursed, and made a fuss of, he can be thoroughly bitten and broken without being punished, thus insuring a good, intelligent, and gentle disposition. It is adjustable to all sizes of horses.

The straps which run from the breeching to the bit; the strap from the bit to the withers; the overdraw check with the upper jaw bit; the two straps from the quarter passing through the rubber ring attached to the breeching; are all adjustable and easy to handle quickly if necessary. The buckles are the flat brass style, so that should a horse throw himself, there are no projections to harm him. The colt gradually becomes used to the bit, crupper, breeching, and leather generally, it can be taken up or let out hole by hole, according to circumstances, thus allowing him to be bitten and broken without having his spirit broken. A set of 24ft. reins go with each set; rings for stirrup strap are affixed.

Price, £10 10s.; let out on hire to responsible people at 30/- per month, cash in advance. Monthly payments may go towards the purchase if desired providing payments are maintained.

Many Hundreds of Prizes have been awarded to Butter Cured with Carroll's Gold Medal Salt.

Nearly all Prize Butters at Shows for many years past, were Cured with Carroll's Gold Medal Special Dairy Salt.

The late president, Queen's College, Cork, W. K. SULLIVAN, Ph. D., D. Sc., M. R. I. A., repeatedly stated that he "believed Carroll's Cork-made Salt to be the purest in the World, and well worth £5 sterling per ton." "A very high eulogium" was passed upon the Exhibit of Mr. WILLIAM CARROLL, by Professor Sullivan of the Queen's College, Cork; indeed it was pronounced to be a PERFECT SALT. To those who knew Dr. Sullivan, no better recommendation could be made."—The Irish Farm, Forest, and Garden, Dublin, July 17th, 1886.

THOMAS A. FORREST, Esq., Head Inspector, Butter Market, Cork, stated at Cork Show, July 9th, 1895, "that during his term of close on thirty years at Market, he never heard a complaint against Carroll's Cork-made Salt."
