This Firm specialize in every department of Cattle feeding, so that regard is had to the exact requirements of the animal during the process of manufacture. By this method they submit the best results are guaranteed.

FATTENING.—One of the most important and interesting pamphlets to Feeders is that giving particulars of a Test recently made between the best English Linseed Cake (12% Oil) and Silcock's Fattening Cake. The latter Cake produced more flesh at a very considerably less cost than Linseed.

TO FLOCKMASTERS.—An illustrated Booklet dealing with Ewes and Lambs and Cake Feeding can be obtained gratis, on application at the Strand. This will be found of distinct interest to all Flockmasters.

MILK ANALYSIS.—Results of Milk Analysis are also shown, giving the high percentages of Butter Fat obtained after Silcock's Dairy Cakes and Meals have been used.

PIG FEEDING.—In connection with Pig Feeding an interesting exhibit of Pig Meal is displayed, together with valuable information to Pig Feeders.

CALF REARING.—Amongst the literature displayed at this Stand are records of many striking successes in Calf Rearing due to the use of Silcock's Calf Meal and Rearing Cake. Messrs. Silcock claim to be the only manufacturers of a Cake specially for Young Stock. It is given to the Calf as soon as it begins to chew the cud.

Instructions to Exhibitors.

1.—Intending Exhibitors are particularly requested to peruse the Rules carefully, and not to enter anything for exhibition unless they are prepared to comply strictly with the Regulations.

2. The necessary printed forms for the Entry of Horses,
&c., will be supplied on application to M. W. LITTON, Secretary, Munster Agricultural Society, 21, Cook Street, Cork. No
Entry will be received unless it be made on the regular printed Form.

3. All Certificates of Entry, accurately filled in every particular, and signed by the exhibitor, or agent, must be lodged with, or sent by post addressed to M. W. LITTON, Secretary Munster Agricultural Society, 21, Cook Street, Cork, together with the amount of the Entry Fees. Drafts or Post Office Orders to be made payable to the "Munster Agricultural Society." No entry will be received unless it is accompanied by the full amount of the Fees.

4. Members of the Society who have paid their subscriptions for the current year, to pay only half entrance fees. The Secretary is directed not to receive any entry except it be accompanied by the proper fees, and in the case of Members, unless their subscription for the current year has been paid.

5. The last day for receiving entries will be—on Single Fees Saturday, June 15th, and on Double Fees, Saturday, June 22nd. Entries, accompanied by the Fees, posted on June 15th and 22nd respectively, will be received on the mornings of June 17th and 24th respectively.

6. All particulars required must be stated fully in the Entry Form; otherwise the animal or other exhibit is liable to be disqualified, and to be excluded from the Show.

7. The ages of all Horses competing to be calculated from the 1st January in the year in which they were born, except when otherwise stated, and except foals whose age will be calculated from the exact date of birth.

8. No animal or other exhibit shall be shown otherwise than in its proper Class in the Show. Any animal or other exhibit entered in a wrong Class will be disqualified. No animal can be entered in two classes except where specially stated, and excepting Harness and Pony Classes, and Classes for Medals, Cups, and all Special Prizes. Thoroughbred Horses are excluded from competition in the Hunter Yearling Classes.

9. Persons entering an exhibit, and failing to send same for exhibition, shall forfeit the entry fee.

10. No Officer of the Society is permitted to fill up the Entry Form for an intending exhibitor.

11. The Committee reserve to themselves the right to reject or return any entry without assigning a reason, to cancel a class or competition, or to postpone the Show.

12. Each Exhibitor or Agent must be prepared to verify every statement contained in the Certificate of Entry in any manner the Committee may require.

14. No alteration whatever can be made in an Entry after it has been received, unless by the consent of the Show Committee

15. In the case of any animal the name of which has been changed, Exhibitors are required to insert both the present name and the former name in the Certificate of Entry.

16. All Exhibits must be bona fide the property of the Exhibitor at the time of Entry.

17. The term "farmer" is to be understood to mean a person who derives his income mainly from farming.

GENERAL REGULATIONS.

18. Exhibitors are to understand that, although every reasonable precaution will be taken to insure the safety and welfare of the animals, and the security of the implements or other objects exhibited, the Society will not be responsible for loss or accidents of any kinds that may occur. Neither will the Society be accountable for any accident that may occur to any person attending the Show, whether as a Visitor, Exhibitor or otherwise.

19. No person whatever shall in any way communicate with a Judge engaged in an adjudication without the previous sanction of the Steward in attendance. Any exhibitor who enters the space in which an Adjudication is proceeding may be disqualified from receiving a prize.

20. The Judges are instructed to withhold a prize when sufficient merit does not appear. The acceptance of any Entry Fee by the Secretary shall not be regarded as an admission that the exhibit is eligible to compete or receive an award. The awards of prizes furnished by the judges shall be final, unless otherwise provided for in these rules, and notwithstanding any error that may be made by a Steward or other official of the Society in placing a prize card on any exhibit.

21. All objections must be lodged, together with a fee of £1, with the Secretary in writing, at or before 6 o'clock on the day of the Show on which the competition took place. Should any objection be made to any successful animal on the score of age, the Veterinary Surgeon appointed by the Committee shall be called in, and his decision shall be final.

22. Each exhibitor to whom a Prize is awarded must be prepared, when required by the Committee to make a statutory declaration that the conditions and regulations affecting such prize have been complied with, otherwise the prize shall lapse to the Society.

23. In all cases the decision of the Show Committee shall be final.

24. No prize shall be paid unless such certificates of qualification as may be required are produced. Unless there are more than three Entries in each Class the Committee reserve to themselves the power to withhold the Second and Third Prizes, or to cancel a Class or Competition.

25. Exhibitors will be provided with a Ticket of admission for each groom in charge of a horse, which will admit the holder before 10.30 o'clock on each morning of the Show. No Groom will be admitted free without this ticket.

26. Hay Soil and Straw will be provided free of expense; and corn and bran will be sold on the premises at fixed prices. An exhibitor may provide himself otherwise should he so prefer.

27. No Exhibit shall be removed except at the hours fixed by the Committee.

28. The Society shall not be in any way responsible for the delivery of any exhibit at the Show, nor for the removal of any Exhibit at the close of the Show. The Show Committee reserves to itself the power to reject or remove any animal or other exhibit from the Show, without being in any way liable for compensation.

29. The Society shall not be in any way liable for any claim for compensation or otherwise arising out of the holding, abandonment or alteration of the date of the Show, nor for any other claim arising out of, or connected with the Show.

30. Any person found in a state of intoxication, conducting himself in a disorderly manner, or refusing to obey the reasonable directions of the Stewards, will at once be removed from the yard.

31. In case it shall be proved to the satisfaction of the Committee that the owner of an Exhibit or any person in his employment, or under his control, has been guilty of any violation of the Rules or Regulations, has made a false statement in the certificate of entry, or substituted another exhibit for that described in the certificate of entry, or has been guilty of any practice calculated to deceive or mislead, or to secure an unfair advantage, the Exhibitor shall forfeit all prizes, cups, medals, etc., awarded to him, at this Show, together with all fees paid by him, and shall be liable to be prevented from competing at this or any other future Show of the Society.

32. The Committee delegates full power to the Stewards to enforce the regulations.

HORSES.

34. All horses must be at the time of entry bona fide the property of the person in whose name the entry is made.

35. On or before the Thursday preceding the Show, a printed number will be forwarded to the exhibitor, to be fastened on the forehead part of the bridle; such number will correspond with the loose box or stall in which the animal is to stand, and must be attached to the animal's bridle or headstall before entering the gate.

36. All Saddle Horses and Ponies must be in their respective stalls before 10.30 a.m. on Tuesday and Wednesday, each morning of the Show. Brood Mares, Young Horses and Polo Ponies must be in their stalls before 10.30 a.m. on the Wednesday morning of the Show. The gates will be closed at 10.30 on each morning of the Show, and no horse can be admitted after that hour. One person only will be admitted with each horse.

37. The Grooms in charge of the animals will not be permitted to leave the premises during the day. Refreshments, which will be provided at a fixed tariff, can be procured on the premises.

38. Each exhibitor is required to send one groom in charge of each animal, which shall be his sole care. If any servant be absent from his animal at the time of adjudication, or on the occasion of the animal being required for parade, the animal will be liable to be excluded from competition, and the deposit fee forfeited.

39. A parade of all the Prize and Commended animals will take place at appointed hours, and each groom must be in attendance half-an-hour before the time announced for the class to appear in the ring.

40. Horses may be examined for the purpose of sale in the Vet, Paddock, at conclusion of Judging, at a charge of 2/6. Admission tickets may be had at the entrance to the Paddock, and will admit one Horse, the Owner, Buyer, V. S. and Rider.

41. Exhibitors are at liberty, under such regulations as the Committee may consider advisable, to remove their horses from the Show each evening, but no horse shall be allowed out of its stall before 6 o'clock, with the exception of horses leaving by boat or train which will be allowed out at 4 p.m. on the second day of the Show on application to the Secretary, from whom a pass must be obtained. To insure the return of the Horses, exhibitors must deposit, along with their entry fees, the sum of £1 for each horse entered for the Show. The deposit will be refunded on the day or days fixed by the Rules of the Show, provided the horse is in his box or stall at 10.30 a.m. on each morning of the Show, less deductions there may be for horses occupying their stalls during the night and provided it is not otherwise forfeited for a breach of the rules.

42. Horses may occupy stalls during the night at the risk of their owners.

43. The sum of 5/- per horse per night will be deducted from the deposit on any horse occupying a Box Stall in the Show Yard for the night, and 2/6 per night for a standing stall.

44. Grooms in charge of horses remaining in the Show Yard over-night must be in attendance at 7 o'clock each morning, to clean out the boxes or stalls. If the boxes or stalls are not cleaned before 8 o'clock each morning, a fine of 5/- will be made, and horses occupying box stalls temporarily must be in their proper stall at 8 a.m. under a similar penalty.

45. Horses must bear their forehead numbers during the whole time they are within the Show Yard. No horse shall be stabled in any loose box or stall, by day or night, other than that allotted to it, and no box stall must be locked between the hours of 9 a.m. and 6 p.m. on either day of the Show. Any violation of this rule will render the owner liable to forfeit the deposit.

46. If any groom be absent from his horse at the time of the adjudication, or when the horse is required for jumping, the horse will be liable to be excluded from competition, and the deposit forfeited.

47. No horse will be allowed out of his stall except at the hours mentioned in the Programme. The exercising or examination of any horse on the paths or roadways, or near the Judging Rings, is strictly forbidden, and will render the owner liable to forfeit his deposit.

48. Owners of horses are warned that any act of discourtesy or disobedience to the officials on the part of the owner, groom, or rider, will disqualify the horse for adjudication, or for taking a prize, and the owner shall forfeit his deposit. The Show Committee reserves to itself the power to remove any groom or horse from the Show without being liable for compensation.

49. If a horse is absent from his stall at any time after 10.30 a.m. on any morning of the Show, unless by order of the Stewards of the Class, the exhibitor will forfeit his deposit, and any prize or prizes that may have been awarded to him for the animal.

50. No placard or notification of any description shall be permitted to be placed over any animal's stall, or circulated in the yard in reference to any animal exhibited, unless with the sanction of the Stewards. An infringement of this rule shall subject the animal to be disqualified from remaining in the Show Yard, and the owner shall forfeit his deposit, if, on the order of a Steward of the Class, or of the Yard, the placard or notification be not immediately taken down or withdrawn.

51. Prizes awarded for a mare which has not produced a foal in 1911, but which is certified as being in foal at date of Show, will not be paid until after the birth of the foal, a satisfactory certificate of which will be required.

52. The Veterinary Examination of all horses (except horses entered in the Harness Classes or for the Jumping Competition) selected for prizes or commendations shall be compulsory.

- (a) The Veterinary Surgeons shall write their Certificate on the Official Form, and it is to be limited to the statement sound or unsound, and the ages of the animals as shown by the state of dentition; and such certificate shall be handed by them, signed to the Steward of the Class in attendance. (A copy of this certificate can be obtained by the owners of prize winners on application)
- (b) In those classes where height is a qualification, the selected horses shall be measured by the Veterinary Surgeon of the Class. Horses shall be measured as shod when exhibited on the first day they compete, and this measurement shall hold good during the Show in all competitions.
- (c) No stallion shall be rejected as unsound unless suffering from one or other of the following hereditary diseases viz. :—Roaring, Whistling, Ringbone, Unsound Feet, Navicular Disease, Spavin, Curb and Cataract. The exhibitor of a stallion passed as sound shall be entitled to a copy of the certificate.

APPEAL.

53a. Two Veterinary Surgeons will be appointed as Referees who shall also be in attendance in the Veterinary Paddock to examine horses in cases of appeal, as hereafter provided

(a) If a horse has been pronounced unsound, or disqualified on account of age or height, the owner or his representative may at once, before the Class leaves the Veterinary Paddock, appeal against the finding of the Veterinary Surgeon, by depositing £1 and his certificate of unsoundness or other disqualification, with a Steward of the Veterinary Paddock who will immediately refer the case to the two Referees to examine the horse, and the finding of the majority of the three Veterinary Surgeons shall be final. A certificate will then be handed to the owner of the horse, or his representative in accordance with the finding.

If the appeal is sustained the deposit of £1 will be refunded

RULES FOR ENTERING SHEEP.

AND INSTRUCTIONS TO EXHIBITORS.

54. The Stock must be the bona fide property, and the possession of, the parties in whose names they are entered.

55. All Animals for competition must be regularly entered with the Secretary on or before SATURDAY, JUNE 15TH, at Single Fees, or JUNE 22ND at Double Fees, by a Separate Entry for each lot or animal, according to forms to be had on application.

56. Each lot or animal must have a separate ticket of entry into the Show-Yard, which will be forwarded by the Secretary a few days before the Show Day.

57. All Animals will be admitted between the hours of three and six o'clock on MONDAY, JULY 8TH.

58. All Animals will be permitted to leave the yard at 6 p.m. on Wednesday, 10th July, except that Sheep leaving by boat or train will be allowed out at 4 p.m. on the second day of the Show, on application to the Secretary, from whom a Pass must be obtained.

59. One servant or caretaker will only be admitted in charge of each lot or animal, and must continue in attendance, subject to the orders of the Stewards and Secretaries.

60. All Sheep exhibited must have been really and fairly shorn bare after the 1st of March, 1912, and the date of such shearing must form part of the notice of entry when the animal is in possession of exhibitor before the last day of entry.

61. It shall be competent for the Managing Committee or Hon. Secretaries to require the exhibitor, or person in charge of each lot, to confirm and verify the notice in the presence of a Magistrate.

62. A competitor may show more than one lot or animal in any class, but not more than five lots.

Instructions to Judges and Stewards

—o—

68. The Judges, accompanied by the Stewards, will proceed at 10.30 on Tuesday and Wednesday mornings to adjudicate on the Classes.

69. Each of the Judges will be provided with a book specifying the Classes to be adjudicated on, the age, and the numbers of the Exhibits, without the names of the Exhibitors, and they are particularly requested not to apply for any further information respecting exhibits under their adjudication or examination. The judges are instructed to adhere to the conditions stated in the Prize List, and not to award or recommend any Prizes save to those therein mentioned.

70. If an Exhibit does not, in the opinion of the Judges, come within the Regulations, they are requested to report the case to the Steward of the Class.

N.B.—A Horse up to a greater or less weight than that specified for the class is to be excluded by the Judges from competition.

71. The Judges are particularly requested to return as "Reserved" in order of merit one or more Horses in each Class which they consider next in merit to those for which the prizes have been awarded; and they are at liberty, should they see fit, to distinguish other meritorious horses by returning them as "Very Highly Commended," "Highly Commended," or "Commended."

72. The Judges are requested to select such Horses in each Class for Veterinary Examination as they may consider eligible for Prizes, or Commendation, but are not to determine the order of merit of such Horses, until they receive the report of the Veterinary Surgeon's examination.

73. The Judges shall not award a prize in any Class where sufficient merit does not appear.

74. No person except a Steward, Judge, Veterinary Surgeon, or person in charge of an animal, shall enter the space enclosed for the Adjudication; nor shall any person hold any communication with a Judge or Veterinary Surgeon, engaged in an Adjudication without permission of a Steward of the Class.

75. No Veterinary Surgeon will be allowed to examine a Horse in connection with the adjudication, except by the direction of one of the Stewards of the Class.

76. The Stewards are particularly requested, as soon as the Prizes have been definitely awarded, to distribute the Rosettes and see the Prize Cards affixed.

77. The Judges are to transmit, under cover, to the Secretary immediately after the Show, their Reports on the several Classes on which they have adjudicated.
