PROGRAMME OF MUSIC

TO BE PERFORMED BY THE

Band of 3rd Batt. The Rifle Brigade

(Prince Consorts Own),

By kind permission of Lt. Col. Alexander and Officers.

ON TUESDAY, 7TH JULY, 1914

- 1.-- MARCH ... "Back to the Camp" ... Blankenburg
- 2.-- VALESE ... "The fairest in the Land" ... Auchille
- 3.-- GIPSY SERENADE ... Auchille
- 4.-- SELECTION "The Marmale Market" ... Jacobi
(Introducing all the most popular airs).
- 5.-- CORNET SOLO "The Rosary" ... Nevin
(Soloist—Band-Serge, S. BRANCO).
- 6.-- OVERTURE "Maritana" ... Wallace

William Vincent Wallace was born of Scottish parents at Waterford, in 1815. His father was Master of a Military Band, and his first impressions were of music. By this means his natural faculty was very early developed, so that in 1822 he showed considerable skill as a pianist. His health failed him, and a sea voyage was recommended as the only means for its restoration. Tiger hunts, shipwrecks, earthquakes, prairie fires, and other like perils intersperse the list of his artistic achievements during this eventful period; but the career upon which his extensive fame is founded may be said to have begun on his return to London in the spring of 1845.

His particular ambition was to write for the stage. Accordingly he chose a popular French drama, "Don Cesar de Bazan," as the groundwork of his opera of "Maritana," which he produced with enormous success in November, at Drury Lane Theatre. It is still a deservedly great favourite upon the stage.

Wallace was a conscientious writer, and would have undoubtedly produced noble work if the times had been more favourable.

- 7.-- SUITE ... "Venezia" ... Nevin

INTERVAL.

- 8.-- TWO STEP "Puppchen" ... Gilbert
- 9.-- INTERMEZZO "Laughing Eyes" ... Finck

| 1. | MARCH | ... "Colonel Bogey" | ... | Alford |
| 2. | WALTZ | ... "Souge d'Automne" | ... | Joyce |
| 3. | SELECTION | ... "Il Trovatore" | ... | Verdi |

Giuseppe Verdi, the foremost Italian musical composer of the latter half of the nineteenth century, was born on the 10th October, 1813, at Le Roncole, a little village near Busseto, in the Duchy of Parma. His father was an innkeeper.

In 1826 he began his career as a composer, but did not become generally known till 1839.

Perhaps the greatest success, among others, is "Il Trovatore," (adapted from a Spanish tragedy of Antonio Garcia Guillierez), which was produced at Rome in 1852.

Verdi has earned his great popularity by his emphatic original melodies, with their characteristic but unsought harmony, by his powerful embodiment of dramatic situations, by his novel and effective manner of treating the voice, and by the scope his music affords the singer of impassioned declamation. In his earlier operas he wrote in the Rossinian School, though always with originality and freedom from slavish copying of his great model. Later, however, he left this school for a style much more nearly like that of Wagner—serious, concentrated, large in phrasing.

CATTLE—Continued.

In the case of cows which have had their milk previously weighed in any other class, and are also entered for this competition, the weight, as returned by the judge of that Class to be accepted as the milk yield of the Cow also entered in the Class, but the sample of milk for analysis of butterfat must be taken by the Stewards of the Class at the time the Cows are previously milked in any other Class.

The following Scale of Marks to be used in determining the position of each Cow in the Prize List, viz. :—

For a cow weighing 1,120 lbs. live weight, 20 marks.

1 mark to be added or deducted for every 56 lbs. of live weight over or under 1,120 lbs., and in the same proportion for differences more or less than 56 lbs.

2 marks to be given for every 1 lb. of milk given over the minimum required for each cow.

10 marks to be given for every 1 per cent of butterfat, and proportionate marks for any intermediate percentages.

For general appearance, trueness to breed, type and general thriftiness, 20 marks.

In the event of any two or more cows obtaining equal marks, the preference will be given to the cow longest in milk.

advantages of the Artesian Well System of Water Supply:—Simplicity of construction, therefore, cheapness. No surface or sewerage contamination.
Water pure and plentiful, cool and refreshing.
Water several degrees cooler in summer than other water. No filtering. No pumping while drilling.
Takes up very little space. No blasting during construction, hence can be put down close to or or inside of buildings. The mineral value of the property is proved. Large consumers save from 30 to 50 per cent. on their present water bill. Illustrated Booklet of 12 pages free on application. Ask for list

R. SILCOCK & SONS, STANLEY HALL, UNION STREET, LIVERPOOL.

Silcocks' Exhibits at Stand 22 include Seven Specialities, together with specimens of their Cotton and Soya Cakes and Meals.

This firm specialise in every department of Cattle feeding, so that regard is had to the requirements of the animal during the process of manufacture. By this method, they submit the best results are guaranteed.

Fattening.—One of the most important and interesting to Feeders is that giving particulars of a test recently made between the best English Linseed Cake (12% oil) and Silcocks' Fattening Cake. The latter Cake produced more flesh at a very considerably less cost than Linseed.

SUNDRY EXHIBITS. Continued.

To Flockmasters.—An illustrated Booklet dealing with Ewes and Lambs and Calf Feeding can be obtained gratis, on application at the Stand. This will be found of distinct interest to all Flockmasters.

Milk Analysis.—Results of Milk Analyses are also shown, giving the high percentages of butterfat obtained after Silcock's Dairy Cakes and Meals have been used.

Pig Feeding. In connection with Pig Feeding an interesting exhibit of Pig Meal is displayed, together with valuable information to Pig Feeders.

Calf Rearing. Amongst the literature displayed at this Stand are records of many striking successes in Calf Rearing due to the use of Silcock's Calf Meal and Rearing Cake. Messrs. Silcock claim to be the only manufacturers of a Cake specially for Young Stock. It is given to the Calf as soon as it begins to chew the Cud.
