Hunters' Improvement Society's Medals

1916.

SCHEME C.—FILLIES.

Offered by the Hunters' Improvement and National Light Horse Breeding Society.

SILVER MEDAL, or the Sum of £1.

For the best Hunter Filly (by a Thoroughbred Horse or Registered Hunter Sire), not exceeding three years old (foaled in 1913, 1914 or 1915), and not having previously won the Society's Silver Medal as a Filly in 1915, which, if unregistered, must be registered within a month of the award for a number in the Hunter Stud Book, possessing a certificate of soundness from hereditary disease, signed by the local Society's appointed Veterinary Inspector (who must be a member of the Royal College of Veterinary Surgeons) after his examination on the Show Ground.

Prize-winners only will be eligible for the Medal; Reserves and lower awards debarred.

Breeders' Prize.—The sum of £1 will be also awarded to the Breeder of the Winning Filly.

(a) Provided such Breeder is a Member of the Hunters' Improvement and National Light Horse-Breeding Society; and

(b) Provided that the dam is a Mare actually registered with a number in the Hunter Stud Book.

No Awards of the Society's Prizes or Medals to a Hunter named and registered in the Hunter Stud Book and subsequently entered by the owner under another name, will be recognised or confirmed unless a re-entry has been previously lodged by the owner for the Hunter Stud Book and the new name registered by the Society.

SCHEME D.—MARES AND GELDINGS.

Offered by the Hunters' Improvement and National Light Horse Breeding Society.

SILVER MEDAL, or the Sum of £1.

For the Best Hunter Mare or Gelding of any age exhibited (the property of a Member of the Hunters' Improvement and National Light Horse Breeding Society) possessing a Certificate of soundness from hereditary disease, signed by the Local Society's appointed Veterinary Inspector (who must be a Member of the Royal College of Veterinary Surgeons) after his examination on the Show Ground.

Prize-winners only will be eligible for the Medal; Reserves and lower awards debarred.

CONDITIONS.

1.—The selected Mare (if unregistered), or the selected Gelding (if unentered), must be registered or entered within a month of the award, in the Hunter Stud Book.

2. The owner of the winner must have paid his subscription for the year to the Hunters' Improvement and National Light Horse Breeding Society within a month of the award.

3. No animal may take more than one Medal under Scheme D in 1916.

No award of the Society's Prizes or Medals to a Hunter named and registered in the Hunter Stud Book, and subsequently entered by the owner under another name, will be recognised or confirmed unless a re-entry has been previously lodged by the owner for the Hunter Stud Book and the new name registered by the Society.

CHALLENGE CUPS FOR POULTRY.

Open to Agricultural and Poultry Shows throughout Ireland, for a fee of £1 1s. 0d.

Five Cups in Poultry Section, of sterling silver, value £4 4s. each, are now offered for competition at Irish Shows, amongst the various breeds, as classified in the appended schedules, and under the conditions specified in the following Rules:—

1.—The Cups shall be competed for in Open Classes by residents in Ireland only.

2.—Each Cup in the Poultry Section must be won eight times, not necessarily in succession, before becoming the property of the exhibitor.

3.—If two or more exhibitors tie for the last win on any Cup, the Competition shall be declared closed, and a new competition shall be entered upon and the first exhibitor of those who have thus tied obtaining a win on the new Cup shall be declared the winner of the preceding one.

4.—No person can receive credit for more than one win on the same Cup on the same day, though it may have been awarded at more than one Show.

5.—In the event of any Cup being won out by an exhibitor not a subscriber to the Challenge Cup Fund, such exhibitor shall be required to subscribe a sum of not less than 7/6 to the said Fund before such Cup shall be handed over to him, or become his property.

6.—The Challenge Cups shall be offered in addition to all other prizes, and shall be awarded to the best bird in the several sections which, in the opinion of the judges, comes nearest to the standard of perfection of its variety, excepting where there is insufficient merit.

CHALLENGE CUPS.—Continued.

7.—The Challenge Cups shall be offered for competition at Shows in Ireland only. The Committee of any Show desiring to have them for competition shall pay to the Cork Poultry, Pigeon and Cage Bird Association, the sum of £1 rs. before the Prize Schedule of Show is issued.

8.—Committees applying for the Challenge Cups must forward a draft of their Prize Schedule, with the rules and names of judges, appointed for the approval of the Committee of the Cork Poultry, Pigeon and Cage Birds Association, who shall have power to withhold the Challenge Cups if they are not satisfied with the proposed arrangement, classification, rules, judges, etc.

9.—A Silver Spoon, value 10/6, will be given to any member of the Association obtaining during his or her membership, four wins in any Challenge Poultry Cup, provided his or her subscription for the current year has been paid at the date of the 5th or 4th win respectively. No member shall be entitled to a second Spoon on winning a Cup outright.

CHALLENGE CUPS.

Open to Ireland, and for competition in other Poultry and Agricultural Shows, at a fee of £1 rs, per Show. Apply Hon. Secretary, Cork Poultry, Pigeon and Cage Bird Association, 21, Cook Street, Cork.
