CONDITIONS.

The animals will be milked at 5 p.m. on Tuesday, July 6th, at an appointed place, and the milk of the next 24 hours will be taken for the trials.

The Prizes in the Milk Yield Classes will be awarded according to the following Scale of Points:

One point for every 1 lb. of milk.

One Point for every completed ten days since calving, calculated to the first day of the Show, deducting the first forty days. Maximum lactation points, 12, but subject to the following conditions:—

(a) Cows served within 90 days after calving, but not later, may obtain maximum points for lactation.

(b) Cows which have calved 91 to 120 days, and have been served within that time, but not later, can only obtain a maximum of 8 points for lactation.

(c) Cows not served within 120 days after calving can only obtain a maximum of 5 points for lactation.

(d) Cows which have calved 121 to 150 days and have been served within that time, but not later, can only obtain a maximum of 4 points for lactation.

(e) Cows not served within 150 days after calving can only obtain a maximum of two points for lactation.

(f) Cows which have calved over 150 days, whether served or not after that time, will not receive any points for lactation.

A Certificate giving the last date of calving (which must be at least 14 days before the opening of the Show), and the last date of service, and stating that the cow has not broken her service since that date, signed by the owner of the cow exhibited, or his agent, must in every case be brought to the Steward of Dairying as soon as possible after the animal has arrived in the Show Yard.

Four points for every 1 per cent. of fat shown on the average of the percentages of fat found in the two milkings.

Cows whose milk shows less than 3 per cent. of fat, reckoned on an average of the fat percentages, found in the two milkings will be disqualified.

Fractions of lbs. of milk, percentage of fat, and incomplete periods of less than ten days, to be worked out in decimals, and added to the total points.

No Prize or Commendation will be awarded to Cattle which do not obtain the following points :

KERRY. - Cows five years old and over on the first day of the Show, 48 points ; Cows and Heifers under five years on the first day of Show, 42 points.

In the case of Cows obtaining the same number of points, the prize to be awarded to the cow which has been the longest time in milk.

Highly Commended Cards will be awarded to all animals, other than winners of prizes, which reach the above standard.
