Report re Gate Receipts - Summer Show.

The Secretary reported that the gate receipts at the recent Summer Show amounted to £200. He had not received all the Tuggs' accounts; and could not estimate the profits, but he hoped it would be around £70 or £80, after taking credit for Grants, etc. This was considered very satisfactory.

Varnish for Roofs at Show Grounds.

On the motion of Mr. T. O'Sullivan, seconded by Mr. D. Cronin, the Secretary was authorised to purchase black varnish for the corrugated iron roofs at the Show Grounds.
