Votes of condolence:

Mr. E. Wall proposed, and Mr. T.N. Desmond, B.L., seconded - that the sincere sympathy of the Society be recorded on the death of one of their oldest members, a prominent worker of the Society, a Vice-President and Hon. Secretary for many years (the late Mr. A.H. Moore). The Chairman said that he had been associated with the late Mr. Moore, through the Society and other interests in the City, for many years, and he could say that outstanding in his interests was The Munster Agricultural Society, and he, The Chairman, would now ask all those present to stand as a mark of respect. The Secretary, on behalf of the staff, was associated with the vote, On the motion of Mr. C. Donovan, seconded by Mr. M.A. O'Sullivan, a vote of condolence was passed to the relatives of the late Mr. Dl. Barry, of Fermoy, who was a member of this Society and an exhibitor at the Annual Shows for a number of years; to the relatives of the late Mr. M.J. McGrath, of Lismore - a prominent member and an exhibitor of sheep. On the motion of Mr. J.B. Roberts, seconded by Mr. P.J. O'Connell, a similar vote was passed to the relatives of the late Mr. J. Stahley.

Meeting adjourned:

The Meeting then adjourned.
