CHAIRMAN'S ADDRESS

Welcome to the Cork Summer Show 2010.

This is our second year in Ballincollig and on behalf of the Munster Agriculture Society I thank each and every one for your support. What we achieved last year will be a very hard act to follow, but we have a whole range of new and exciting events that will make the 2010 Show our biggest and best yet.

At the heart of the show are the equine and bovine events, along with displays of agricultural and farm machinery. This year we have added an extra day to include sheepdog trials and, for the first time, exhibitions of boxing and martial arts. We are delighted to reintroduce the showing of pigs after too long an absence. Add in the show jumping on 4th July and the Cork Summer Show is now a four day event, making it one of the highlights on the social and cultural calendar.

Farming and fun go hand in hand at the Show, so once again we have laid on free entertainment for children and generous prizes for our famous Best Dressed competitions. We have added a Food Hall to showcase the extraordinary range of fresh produce from around the region, and expanded the exhibition area to include a Wedding Tent and many more trade stands. There are cookery demonstrations from some of Cork's finest kitchens, floral displays, gardening and home interior experts on hand to answer your questions, pet shows, fashion advice, a busking competition, a Farmers' Market, a funfair, to name but a few of the attractions on offer. I think I can safely say that the Cork Summer Show really does have something for everyone.

We are all very proud of what the Society has achieved over the last two hundred years and see the Show as a way of celebrating the past and building for the future. We could not do this without the support of all our friends, Cork County Council, An Garda Siochana, the Health Service Executive, Cork County Fire Service, Ballincollig Shopping Centre for the Park & Ride facilities, especially the clubs and organisations – sports, community, equine, bovine, dogs, arts & crafts, horticultural, food, who have all contributed to bring the show together. The Members and Volunteers who give so freely of their time, experience and expertise to make this show possible. The highest compliment you could pay us is to enjoy yourselves this year, and come back again next year.

Cork Summer Show Boxing Extravaganza

Cork Showgrounds, Kilumney, Ballincollig, Co. Cork
Friday, June 18th 2010 3-8 pm

Good Evening Ladies & Gentlemen and welcome to the spectacular Cork Summer Show Boxing Extravaganza which will feature some of Cork's Best Boxing Talent as well as Irish Champions & Olympians in a feast of Juvenile, Junior & Senior Competitions.

Take a ringside seat with me, Willie O'Leary on this extended programme as I recall the outstanding Cork boxing personalities that graced the stadiums of the world with valour and blazed a trail of glory across the globe - this is only a preliminary snapshot which will be part of the upcoming book 'The Cork Boxing Story' which will be published in 2011 to celebrate a century of Cork Boxing. We thank the Summer Show organisers for giving us this opportunity to showcase some of our outstanding boxers at this prestigious event. The Cork County Boxing Board and the Cork Ex-Boxers Association have come together to make this event a massive success.

A Marathon Boxing Show
The Cork Boxing Story Round 1

(The Cork Boxing Story will be published in 2011 to celebrate a century of Cork Boxing).

'The Boxers Motto'-
Live Clearly, Speak Softly, Trust in God, Fight Hard, Fight Fair.
Some people see things and ask why we dream things that never were and ask why not.

The Boxing Ring – where a man is always so desperately alone – where skill and courage light the flame of glory,
The square inside the ropes has its trails by ordeal, its triumphs and its heart breaks.
Welcome to our world on behalf the Cork County Boxing Board and the Cork Ex-Boxers Association – a special word of thanks to the Cork Summer Show Co and organisers for the opportunity to stage a monster Boxing Tournament to coincide with their prestigious event 'The Cork Summer Show' at the Showgrounds in Kilumney, Ballincollig, Co. Cork June 2010.

At this event the Ex-Boxers Association and County Board combined will produce a programme booklet which will profile the outstanding boxing performances of the last 100 years, the present and future – this will be a history making event as the 'Cork Boxing Story' has never been told.
So join me at the ringside to see the future champions and on seeing the programme you will experience a trip down memory lane and visit the careers of Cork's greatest boxers, some of whom graced the stadiums of the globe with honour and distinction – here you will experience the success, the tragedy, the glory of our greatest boxing ambassadors.

Primitive Conditions:

Relive the time period where grinding poverty was abysmal, emigration rampant and Cork Boxers were akin to national heroes. Club premiers were primitive with no running water or proper sanitation and I recall at the famous boxing academy, Sunnyside, situated in the Old Market Place, off Blarney Street, a two-story structure and under the stairway a water main (led) fitted with a stop cock – a coco tin perforated would provide the shower of cold water only and this was often used by Dockers from Cork boats on their way home after a day's work. This story is just one of the many that will be included in the upcoming book: The Cork Boxing Story.

In Appreciation:

I want to take this opportunity to pay tribute to all our administrators who are a priceless commodity to our amateur sport. The club committees, the referees, the judges, the corner men, and the helpers, some who are generally unknown, deserve recognition and every accolade – but as Thomas Gray put it:

Full many a gem of purest ray serene,
The dark unfathomed caves of ocean bear;
Full many a flower is born to blush unseen,
And waste its subtleness on the desert air.

President,

MOSSIE "DIDO" O'CALLAGHAN
CORK BOXINGS' GREATEST CHARACTER

Mossie Dido, as he was known to everyone, came into Cork boxing like a breath of fresh air. A brilliant boxer, his wit and comical disposition set him apart from everyone else. The man was an absolute genius and when Mossie spoke, everyone listened. If we were heading to Dublin or some other city, the journey normally took 3 to3½ hours, if Mossie was with us it was like a fraction of the time when he started telling some of his amazing stories. We have in our possession some caricatures showing the outstanding character and story teller that Mossie was and they also tell the story of his ring exploits. One tells about an overmatched contest where Mossie was asked to oblige the promoters in a supposed exhibition spar, things turned out differently, the much heavier opponent came to knock him out and put Mossie on the back foot, using all his boxing skills – blocking, parrying, finally called to his corner to throw in the towel only to be told that they hadn't any and a similar reply when he asked for a sponge to be thrown in. The referee saved Mossie from further punishment by stopping the fight. Mossie thanked him. His name was John Devine and Mossie always said the prayer – "May the Devine mercy always remain with me".
As a trainer and corner man, Mossie wanted to change the ways of one of his boxers who was regularly being floored and knocked out. Mossie called him the horizontal man but again and again the inevitable happened – out like a light.
A meeting was called by the club committee. Mossie told them not to despair – a businessman came to the dressing room. A sponsor had been found. All eyes lit up, "money". The sponsor asked if he could advertise on the soles of our boxer's boots.

Having a drink after the Senior Championships in the ringside bar at the National Stadium, a former Dublin boxer was bragging about his training methods in Canada. Chopping down trees was probably the hardest bit of training that they did. Mossie retorted that we did that in the Nevada desert. "Jaysus, Corky, any fool knows that there's no trees in the desert". Mossie's reply was there were before we set up training camp there.

A boxer's dressing room can be a very tense place before a fight. A certain nervousness comes over you, the tension can overcome you, and you can forget something very easily. In the author's case, on one occasion he forgot to replace his false teeth with his gum shield. Mossie had a better one – he was boxing in Scotland and the announcer called out "And in the Red corner from Cork, Ireland" – Mossie discarded his dressing gown then he realised he forgot to wear his boxing trunks.

Mossie was boxing with the British army in Egypt and was top of the Bill. Winning his bout, he was looking forward to coming home on leave. He waited to collect his winning trophy: Bronze camels were the prizes. He was told he would have to go outside for his prize, and there saw a real live camel that had no hump. A young

Leggy O Sullivan Irish Heavyweight

Egyptian lad handed him the rope holding the camel. Mossie told him he was going on leave and couldn't take the camel. The lad shrugged and walked away. Mossie called out "What is he's name?". Humpfree was the answer.
After ex-boxers meetings, discussions would take place about the various events in the lives of the boxers. Especially during the war years, the 40's and 50's. They would talk about the prizes they won. One said he got a loaf of bread, another got a 2lb bag of flour. Mossie, after competing in the best fight of the night, received a big bag of flour. Arriving at Parnell Place Bus Station from west Cork, he collected his bag of flour and then had to walk to the north side with the big bag of flour on his back. A storm broke out, the rain came, the wind blew, the bag tore and when he arrived at his doorstep, his mother nearly suffered a heart attack seeing a while ghost-like figure outside.

MICHAEL ROCHE

IRISH INTERNATIONAL, OLYMPIAN 2000 SYDNEY, 5 TIMES SENIOR LIGHT MIDDLEWIEGHT CHAMPION

It was always said Michael Roche was the most elusive boxer in the history of boxing in Cork. A matador without a cape and I often marvelled at his great escapades and how he executed them when his opponent would lounge into an empty corner wondering where Michael had gone to. That move would thrust Michael into an attacking position that normally spelt the end for his opponent. His contests against John Duddy, a powerful puncher, were normally the fights of the Championships. A shift of Michael's head left or right, punch missed and Roche would only feel the breeze of Duddy's glove, another victory, another senior title. Michael Roche is one of the great gentlemen of the sport and a role model for all young boxers to follow. Michael is now a dedicated member of the Cork ex-Boxers and is very proud that five members followed him to Australia to take part in the greatest Show on earth and his quest for Olympic glory in Sydney 2000.

BILLY "DAWSEY" DEASY, 1950's – 1960's.

Billy Deasy had a hard square fighting face that loudly proclaimed his trade as a tough campaigner, as a featherweight and lightweight boxer, around the halls of Munster which were all the rage in the 50's and 60's. Billy had a few equals in his preferred divisions. Like a lot of boxers before him, major honours evaded him, but Billy was a genuine competitor in his favourite sport and his interest still continues to this day as an active member of the Cork ex-Boxers Association. He still travels to Dublin and other major venues for boxing events, big or small, Billy continues to be involved. Billy is a true gentleman of the ring and is a worthy entry into the Cork Boxing story.

BEST WISHES TO THE CORK EX-BOXERS

FROM THE

CARROLL FAMILY

DOUGLAS

JOHN DINEEN

Only the sands of time signalled the final bell at the ripe old age of 87 of a great boxing trainer. In the 1060's and 1070's while rearing a young family of his own, John's other dedication was to his other family, the members of that treasured boxing academy on the north side of Cork city, Fr. Horgan's Boxing Club. He was a clever coach and corner man and his shrewd advice snatched many a victory from the jaws of defeat. A Munster senior champion in his young days, he was able to pass on a reservoir of boxing skills and techniques to his protégés at Fr. Horgan's. This author was one of them and all who passed through his hands were guaranteed a sound grounding of boxing and life. How ironic then as President of the Cork ex-Boxers Association, I had the privilege to present him with the "Hall of Fame" award to mark his massive contribution to boxing. John Dineen was a credit to his calling and inspiration to all of us who were fortunate to be under his guidance, to live leanly, speak softly, trust in God, fight hard and fight fair.

PAUL BUTTIMER
SENIOR FLYWIEGHT AND BANTAMWEIGHT CHAMPION
IRISH INTERNATIONAL. OLYMPIAN 1992

The cleverest boxer Cork ever produced, he could punch with speed, a great fighter to watch, he developed into a dangerous two fisted battler. His lion-like courage always stood between him and defeat. His aggressiveness and punching power won him most of his contests. No Belfast boxer ever beat him including world champion Wayne McCullagh and he left that be known to the Belfast trainer "Harry Hawkins" after he beat McCullagh.

TOMMY HYDE – PRINCE OF THE RING
IRISH SENIOR CHAMPION 1947

His brilliance and his wizardry were something to marvel at, his accuracy and speed amazing. The late Dinny Murphy who saw most of his contests told me that Tommy would arrive from his corner on dancing feet, bobbing and weaving, his lightening hands like poetry in motion – mounting the points which would end his road map to victory. Tommy Hyde was 10st 7lbs of pure dynamite because from bell to bell he never failed to jab and move, bob and weave, and would have all the City Hall crowds open mouthed, and a thunderous applause would last long after the contest ended. As a young boxer on hearing of his genius I wrote this poem as a tribute to him.

A Cork boxer we honour with pride,
Is Tommy Hyde from Sunnyside,
The Greatest Ring Master ever was seen,
And distinguished himself in Ireland's green.
In a city hall packed on a Friday night,
Is where Tommy Hyde displayed all of his might,
Dancing and swerving had em all in a reel
With his lightening hands and a chin like steel,
A hero and legend personified
That's Tommy Hyde from the Sunnyside.

JACK McAULIFFE
LIGHTWEIGHT CHAMPION OF THE WORLD FROM 1886 TO 1896.
UNDEFEATED FOR A TOTAL OF THISTEEN YEARS IN THE U.S.A.

Jack was born in Christ Church Lane off the South Main Street. He emigrated with his family to the U.S.A as a six year old boy. He started boxing in the States as a young lad and had won over 200 fights as an amateur before turning professional. He was undefeated for 13 years as a professional, ten of those years he was World Champion. Nat Fletcher, the famous author of the Ring magazine was once asked: "Who, in your opinion was the greatest world champion you had ever written about."? At that time there were eight divisions in world boxing, champions included Dick Burg, Benny Leonard, Sugar Ray Robinson, Roberto Duran & Henry Armstrong, Nat's answer – without a doubt; Jack McAuliffe. When Jack retired he never forgot his roots. He could be seen every thanksgiving and Christmas calling to houses and homeless people delivering food to the hungry poor of New York. A Plaque was unveiled in his honour by the Cork ex-Boxers and Lord Mayor at the time, Mr Bernard Allen T.D. in the Bishop Lucey Park only yards from where he was born.

John Devereaux 1940's – 1950's
One of the Greats of the Golden Era of Cork Boxing

He never ceased to punch regardless of whether or not the fight was going against him. These relentless whirlwind methods of his and his utter fearlessness made him the idol of the city hall thousands and later became a recipient of the boxings hall of fame award.

It was the contest vs. ABA Champion Peter Keenan, future British Feather Weight and European Champion, that trusted Johnnie to fame and acclaim. He had stepped from obscurity to the dazzling spotlight of success because of his amazing style of fighting and was immediately named the box of tricks.

Johnnie Dev was a relentless, unyielding, smashing battler. He fought coming from his corner, carrying the fight to his opponent with a reckless indifference to punishment. It was in this manner that he tore into Keenan with both fists flailing in tigerish attack. That became Johnnie Devs greatest victory and entered him to the "Cork Boxing Story".

CONNIE MORRISSEY
BRITISH A.B. CHAMPION, WELSH CHAMPION
WELSH INTERNATIONAL

Connie, as a 17 year old victim of emigration, arrived at a Welsh coal mine seeking work in 1945 after a promising career in Cork. With coal dust still on his hair and clothes after a hard day's work, he would attend training sessions at the Mining Company gym. His mentors where would soon discover the new kid on the block had speed, skill and a terrific punch and was soon showing the potential to becoming the first Cork man to win a British title. Connie, as tough as granite, could, as swift as lightening, bring his let glove from hip level like a vicious arc and drop his opponent like a log, most of his contests ended inside the distance and would become a favourite with the welsh international team. Turning professional Connie chalked up over 20 wins. Longing to return home and this strongly appealed to him, he became a trainer on Fr. Horgan's Boxing Club, a position he was so proud to take on. He continued his lifelong interest in boxing and was rewarded by receiving the Cork Hall of Fame award. A credit to the sport he loved.

Donie Carroll was one of the class youth boxers of the 1960'and his contests on over eleven occasions with top notcher Tony Arnold of Fr. Horgan's B.C. are now memorable events. Donie combined his boxing with his other talent as singer and guitarist as a member of the renowned "finnegan's Wake". He later settled in New York and in recent times was elected Corkman of the Year for his contribution to Cork Irish causes.

The C.E.B.A pay him this tribute-:

One day a young man from Douglas in Cork
had ventured afar to the town of New York
A Boxer of great quality was he
His name was Donie Carroll from the banks of the Lee.

Would be well known too for his music and song
Recognition in the Big Apple would not take long
Playing in pubs and clubs to the Irish he sings
Songs of home – and the memories it brings
Start spreading the news he's Corkman of the Year
Fulfilling the dream he's made it there

Cork Born Mick Leahy British middleweight Champion, European and World Contender 1963

A Cork sporting icon world renowned thousands he did thrill
Was the battling flamed haired boxer Mick Leahy from Spangle Hill
He fought the best from east to west but the British title was his conquest
That night in Nottingham T was the year of 63
He blazed a trail of glory and became legendry
That night in Nottingham he made history and fame
When spangle Hill's Mick Leahy British Middleweight Champion came.

By Liam O Laoire.

MICK LEAHY
BRITISH MIDDLEWIEGHT CHAMPION

Mick Leahy graced the stadiums of the world with distinction – armed with unlimited courage and a reservoir of energy. But on January 6th 2010, the sad news from Leamington arrived in Cork on the death the day before, at 74, after a long illness of Mick, one of Ireland's and Cork's sporting legends.

He was a former British Middleweight Champion and a European and World contender. Mick was always assured of a rousing reception on entering the ring, on over 70 occasions, as a professional boxer. His barnstorming style and tactics showed little respect for the reputation of his opponents – Sugar Ray Robinson, Joe Archer, Wally Barnes, Laslo Papp, Brian Curvis, Boswell St. Louis – just some of the long list of welter and middle weight greats he encountered.

Sports writers clamoured to cover his contests. One called his fights "The Mick Leahy fireworks display". Steven Fagan of the Daily Sketch wrote "Take em all on Does Leahy".

When in 1958 work wasn't forthcoming in Britain, he wandered down to Australia and knocked the hell out of their hopeful welters. He fought 14 fights and claimed champion Wally Barnes as one of his ten victims.

Then someone summoned Canada'a tough man, Wilf Greaves, who had beaten Dick Tiger and tangled twice with Gene Fulmer.

The Canadian soon discovered what toughness was all about. After 12 gruelling rounds the fight was declared a draw, but Greaves declined a rematch.

May 1963 would become a special time in the annals of Cork sporting history. Noel Cantwell would captain Manchester United at Wembley to lift the FA Cup and two weeks later, at Nottingham Ice Rink, Mick Leahy would reach the promised land and be the first and only Cork man to win that coveted prize, the Lonsdale Belt and the British title by knocking out George Aldridge in one minute and 50 seconds.

In September the following year he challenged an ageing but still powerful Sugar Ray Robinson. Robinson, regarded as one of the all time greats, came out fast and strong but could not break down his obdurate opponent, who out-pointed him after 10 rounds.

In recent times the Cork ex-Boxers Association asked the City Council to erect a plaque to Cork's Boxing hero and it was eventually put up in Bishop Lucey Park.

This read:

A Cork sporting icon world renowned and thousands did he thrill
Was the battling flamed haired boxer Mick Leahy from Spangle Hill,
He fought the best from East to West
But the British title was his conquest,
That night in Nottingham 'twas the year of '63,
He blazed a trail of glory, became legendary,
That night in Nottingham he made history and fame,
When Spangle Hill's Mick Leahy British Middleweight Champion came.

DR. PADDY HENNESSY

Irish University Bantam WGT Champion
Medical Officer to the I-A-B-A
Life Member of the Glen B.C.

As I look back on the pageant of past years I have seen great fighters, great fights, great personalities and incidents that have left their impression vivid and clear cut on my mind – but few could equal the monumental contribution of DR. Paddy Hennessey and that was marked by the ex boxers and I as President had the privilege to present him with that prestigious hall of fame award.

The Doc emerged at a time when Irish boxing was becoming world renowned and was medical officer pre Seoul and Barcelona Olympics, where Michael Carruth and Wayne McCullough starred for Ireland winning Gold and Silver. I accompanied The Doc on many occasions at their training camps, pre their Olympic challenges, where the popular and humorous doctor became an inspiration to his luminous charges.

PADDY BUCKLEY, MALLOW
Munster Senior Champion
Irish Rep 1940's – 1950's

The legendry Paddy Buckley of Mallow B.C. was unique and was a regular performer at the City Hall Fight Nights.

When Maxi McCullough won the European light weight title in 1947 he decided to come to Cork to show off his immaculate Boxing skills v' s Paddy Buckley, but Paddy a two fisted attacker with a panther like stance and a chin like a blacksmiths anvil wasn't having any of it and recorded a famous victory over his illustrious opponent. What made Paddy different were his unique training methods. Three nights a week he would cycle 22miles to the Glen Boxing Club, in Spring Lane, train and spar with some of Cork's finest, Christy Dineen, Tony Myers, Paddy Martin, and Jim Curbertt, and later, sometimes in atrocious weather, cycle back home.

"After Paddy Buckley was made – somebody lost the mould!"

CORK BOXING ADMINISTRATORS

I want to take this opportunity to pay tribute to all of the fabulous sportsmen and women who are a priceless commodity to our amateur sport. The Clubs, communities the referees, judges, trainers, coaches, helpers, some who are generally unknown. They deserve recognition and every accolade but as Thomas Gray put it

" Full many a gem of purest ray serene
The dark unfathomed caves of ocean bear
Full many a flower is born to blush unseen
And waste its sweetness on the desert air"

WEATHERBYS
DNA LABORATORY

DNA DETECTION OF THE
BLUE EYED CREAM GENE
IN CONNEMARA PONIES

Due to recent advances in molecular technology Weatherbys Ireland DNA testing laboratory can now offer a genetic screening test for the presence of the Blue Eyed Cream Gene. This test can be carried out using hair root or blood samples on both stallions or mares for the presence of this gene.

The Laboratory now also offers a screening test for coat colour carrier status which breeders may find useful. (Homozygous Test).

Apart from its equine services the laboratory offers parentage and traceability testing for the livestock industry and is closely monitoring any developments in genomic studies that could be useful to the livestock industry.
